“We have a remarkable number of people who have no business being judges. I mean none. They don’t have the competence even to be a private practice attorney who can bill at a rate that people would not pay [sic]. I’m not kidding.” Bevin also said potential judges first should pass “some kind of competency test.” Initially, I was irritated.

Divided We Fall - 2 - Dedication For my students: present, past, and future. Story of the Play Everyone has some burden, but shared pain is always easier to bear. This monologue-based play is sure to strike the hearts of teens, showing them that any frustration, embarrassment, loneliness, and grief they are experiencing is not limited to them alone.
