God doesn't need anything. He doesn't need our worship, our work or our money. So why does God command us to worship, serve, and give our money to him? First of all, for his glory. Wait a second. If He doesn't need our work or worship, how does it glorify Him? It certainly doesn't add anything to His glory. Yet it does display His glory. When we sing His praises together, we display to one another God's greatness, kindness, and love.

5:4-7). As you grow in your ability to follow God's guidance, you need to learn how to cooperate with miracles and catch them. When you see circumstances lining up, then have enough sense to cooperate and get the fish in the boat! Don't be like the man who stood on his rooftop, asking God to deliver him from the rising flood waters.

Church life is declining and the religions are returning, often in new guises. In light of these shifts and the change in his own view of community, Father Lohfink inquires in Does God Need the Church? of Israel's theology, Jesus' praxis, the experiences of the early Christian communities, and of what is appearing in the Church today.

The Bible often speaks of the importance of faith in knowing God. For example, Ephesians 2:8 teaches, "For by grace you have been saved through faith." First Corinthians 13:13 adds, "So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love." But why does God require faith ...
